

KILLED THEMSELVES

Did This Pair of Loving
Kentucky Children

BECAUSE THEY COULDN'T WED

Took Deadly Dose of Carbolic
Acid and Bravely
Died Together.

Ashland, Ky., Sept. 11.—As the result of parental objection and a suicide pact, pretty little Isabelle Zetron and her sweetheart, Tommy Bales, are lying with hands folded in two white caskets at the homes of their broken-hearted parents, near York, in Greenup county, and all the countryside is talking of the childish romance that culminated in the tragedy.

Tommy and Isabelle had been raised from infancy on adjoining farms, and had gone through school together. They had formed an attachment that was apparently deeper than their parents suspected, for only a few weeks ago they ran away from home and attempted to get married at the county seat, but were refused on account of their tender years, neither being yet 16. Their parents learned of the escapade and refused to allow Tommy to see Isabelle again. But Tommy managed to see his child sweetheart and gave her a bottle of carbolic acid. Both agreed to take it at the same time if another appeal failed. Tommy was to see his own and Isabelle's parents once more and endeavor to gain their consent to the marriage, and, failing in this, he was to signal Isabelle, and at the same hour Sunday midnight both were to swallow the fatal draught.

The parents refused, and the children ended their lives. In the girl's room was found a note telling the whole pitiful story. They will be buried together in the same burying ground.

Infant Killed With a Pawpaw by its Father.

London, Ky., Sept. 12.—William Jones, arrested at Hyden, Leslie county, last week, charged with the murder of his one-year-old child, is guilty, if what his wife says is true.

The child was buried before Jones was suspected of its murder. He had threatened his wife with death, she declares, if she made public his crime, which was committed before her eyes. Three days after the child's death, Jones was suspected, and though his wife at first attempted to shield him, he was arrested, the coroner's jury charging him with murder.

Mrs. Jones says that her husband, in a furious rage, engaged in a quarrel with her, and then seized a pawpaw stick, with which he struck the helpless infant twice, breaking its back and neck. The child's body was exhumed, and found by Drs. Lawrence and Collins to have been killed by blows which broke the back and neck.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc. A weak stomach, causing dyspepsia, a weak heart with palpitation or intermittent pulse, always means weak stomach nerves or weak heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro., J. H. Williams.

She Found Relief. If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammon, Moody, Texas. "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish." Lincoln's Birthplace Claimed by Lexington Citizens.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 12.—Answering a letter addressed to him by Clarence Mackey, Treasurer of the Lincoln Farm Association, Mayor Thomas A. Combs, of this city, has promised to co-operate in raising a fund to purchase the home place of Abraham Lincoln and convert it into a national park. Associated with Clarence Mackey are Joseph W. Folk, Governor of Missouri; Robert J. Collier, August Belmont, Lyman J. Gage and many other distinguished Americans. As Kentucky was the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln, the Mayors of the Kentucky cities are expected to co-operate in raising a fund to purchase the Lincoln farm. There is a doubt, however, that President Lincoln was born in Hardin county, where the farm is located. By many persons here it is contended that he was born at Stony Point, near this city, and was taken to Hardin county when a child. It is not improbable that the farms at Stony Point and in Hardin county will be purchased and both of them turned into national parks.

Praise Safer Than Blame.

Viscount de Belmont of Brazil was dining in a New York restaurant. Suddenly he put down his knife and fork and uttered an exclamation of approval. "By Jove, a beautiful woman!" he said in the demonstrative southern way.

"She is my wife," the viscount's companion murmured modestly. The young man laughed. "Excuse my personal remark," he said, "but it was much better than that of an Oxford friend of mine."

"My friend, on the boat coming over, stood in conversation with an elderly man on the promenade deck. Near by a woman sat in a deck chair. My friend, pointing to her, said, with a sneer:

"I wonder if that ugly old woman is actually trying to flirt with me!" "I don't know," the elderly gentleman answered mildly, "but I can easily find out for you. She's my wife."—Woman's Home Companion.

Heard in the Kitchen.

Miss Spoon—What are you looking so mad about?
Coffeepot—Mad! I was so angry with cook yesterday that I just boiled over, and I'm not settled yet.—Bohemian.

Self Interested Generosity. Edwin and Lisa, says the New York Press, are two little cousins of three who are almost inseparable and divide most of their goodies. One day Edwin had a whole cracker unbuttered and half a one which was buttered. He gave the former to Lisa, and his mother commended him for giving away the larger piece.

Little Lisa looked up aggrievedly. "Yes," said she, "he gave me the biggest, but he kept the butterest."

BACK THERE.

Back there in the other years, in the drift of their dream and song, An echo is ringing for us as we move in the murmuring throng; It carries us out of our cares, and it soothes like a touch that we knew When the tenderness of a mother's love enfolded us, me and you!

Back there in the other years, in the gleam of the golden morn, When fancy followed with dancing feet the lure of the fairy horn; Back there in the golden days an echo is ringing yet Of the laughter brimming the lips of hope—a music we can't forget!

Back there in the other years, in the sweet, old-fashioned time Of childhood play and the lighthearted way of the wonderful nursery rhyme; Back there in the dream we drift, and over and over again Our hearts are singing the olden song and humming the old refrain!

Back there in the other years, the homestead under the hill, The beautiful valleys of song and bloom, the click of the clattering mill; To the tune and the throb and thrice, in the same old beautiful way We lift our heads to its golden thought wherever we are to-day!

Back there in the other years are shadows we left behind, Of old, far-off, forgotten things that are drifting mist in the mind; But they weave in their wonderful spell a web that enfolds us sweet, And ever and ever they draw us back to the path where the roses meet!

Back there in the other years, the meadows of bloom and bird, The little brooks where the ripples laved the legs of the lowing herd; The old barn fragrant with hay, and the leaping upon the mow— Ah, back from the other years there drifts a vision of all of it now!

Back there in the other years, the quiet and innocent life, An echo is ringing for us, as we move in the surging strife; And it cheers and strengthens and helps and holds every one of us true To the tender touch of the mother-love back there in the years we knew!

Cooking a Pumpkin.

The best way to cook a pumpkin is to set it in a tin and then place it directly in the oven without any other preliminary treatment than a light washing with a wet vegetable brush. Bake it for an hour or more, according to the size of the pumpkin. When it is done, open the stem end and remove the seeds. The rind will peel off as though it were so much paper. As a time and trouble saver there is no better way to cook a pumpkin.

Reason For It.

"Goodness!" exclaimed Mrs. Subbubs, arriving home from church, "the minister gave us nothing but fire and brimstone to-day."

"I thought he would," said her husband. "I saw their servant girl going down to the station with her trunk just after you started to church."

Extremes.

"See, Larry, the man at the other table is a swell. He orders extremities."

"Extremities?"
"Yes, he ordered frogs' legs."
"Bedad, thin O'll order extremities, too."

"But you can't afford frogs' legs."
"No, but O'll order pigs' fate."

One of Teddy's Teeth.

New York, Sept. 12.—In the window of a little shop at Lexington avenue and Sixtieth street is a gold ring with a setting that includes two small diamonds and a human tooth. A sign announces that it is the "tooth of the twenty-fifth President of the United States."

The proprietor of the store says he bought it an administrator's sale of the effects of Mrs. Julia B. Grover, the woman who committed suicide, leaving all her possessions to President Roosevelt. The tooth is said to be one that resided in the President's face when he was a boy, and which he many years ago gave to this eccentric woman admirer.

Found Treasure in His Fish Net. Dunkirk, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Gus Ormsby, a fisherman, while lifting his nets off Vanzuren Point, in Lake Erie, discovered the wreck of the propeller Dean Richmond, which was lost in a storm, with all on board, during a gale in October, 1893. The Dean Richmond has a cargo of lead and copper ore valued at $200,000, and vain attempts had been made by the underwriters and by private enterprises to locate the bones of the treasure ship.

Busy Modern Tourist. "I suppose you visited all the points of interest while you were abroad," said one young woman.

"No," answered the other, "we were so busy addressing post cards to our friends that we had't time to do much sightseeing."

Didn't Want It Magnified.
A little Scotch boy's grandmother was packing his luncheon for him to take to school one morning. Suddenly looking up in the old lady's face, he said:

"Grandmother, does yer specs magnify?"
"A little, my child," she answered.

"Aweel, then," said the boy, "I wad juist like it if ye wad tak' them aff when ye're packin' my luncheon."

What Do They Cure?
The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder—curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous dysentery), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic, intractable disease of hemorrhoids it is often successful in effecting a cure.

"The Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those of the female system, especially the irregularities incident to women only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve. For weak women, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authorities, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines. The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.
